Jax was a 13 year old Saint Bernard Mixed Breed. His favorite toys were all stuffed animals especially Cheetah Squeaky, and his favorite treat was Jerkey. Some of Jax's favorite things to do were go to the dog park, go anywhere we went, car rides, being part of the family, and lastly LOVED getting on the couch and bed. Some favorite memories are when Jax saw our chihuahua, Tig, getting attacked by another dog, Jax ran up and attacked that dog to let Tig go. He saved Tig. He was also the neighborhood dog, he made friends with everyone. When he wanted in he'd come to the window and bark around night-time to go to bed. He also knew a-lot of tricks! Sit, stay, lay down, shake, play dead, he even knew his left from his right!

Rest In Peace Jax
