

Maiq Popoff

October 6, 2025

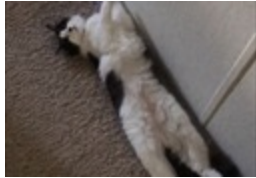

Maiq was my baby for 6 years. I found her and her brother when they were only a few weeks old and they have been the sweetest cats I've ever encountered. Maiq would be at the door ready to greet you and wait for shoes to be taken off so that she could roll around on them and try them on for herself. She had a snake toy that she adored more than anything and would drag it from one side of the house to the other in her mouth while meowing as loud as possible to get you to play with her in the middle of the night. She had a spot next to the front door where she could stretch out along the wall and lie on her back for hours at a time without a care in the world. She was never much for food or snacks, always waiting patiently for water instead. She always loved to be around people, and she always made sure to show her love by climbing on your leg and hugging you as she slept with the loudest purrs. My time with her was special, the love she gave will still be felt for years to come. She'll be sorely missed.

Rest In Peace Maiq
