

Rhea Moore

February 23, 2025

Rhea was an 8 and a half, would have turned 9 on July 14, Pitbull. Her favorite toy was a small soccer ball. Rhea loved all treats. She loved going outside and dragging her belly in the grass, and laying over the vents in the house when the heat was on. Our favorite memory was we had a raspberry bush in our yard and everyday during our walks she would run to that bush for me to pick some so she could eat them. She loved warm weather, and hated being cold.

Rest in Peace Rhea
