Peacefully crossed the rainbow bridge, and into his daddy's arms today. We are sure he was welcomed by his sissy, Chloe, with a brand new Lamb Chop to love and his brother Max, hopefully with a cheeseburger for him to snack on. You were loved by so many, but your days here became hard. Gone were the days of sunbathing by the door, & listening to trains go by. You had the fullest, and best life but let us know you were ready. Im not sure what your mommy will do without you pawing her hair & face to wake her every morning. You will always be our #1 boy.

We love you Rusty Allen.

Rest In Peace Rusty Allen Perrock
