"Until one had loved an animal, a part of one's soul remains unawakened." - Anatole France

Tyson Ray Stuart, a sweet American Pit Bull Terrier born in 2014, passed away on November 1, 2025. From the moment he arrived home, he was showered with love and pampering, becoming his human's pride and joy. He was undoubtedly a momma's boy, always staying close to her side. Despite his constant barking and vocal nature, Tyson was undeniably the sweetest boy in the world. He relished his role as the top dog on the farm, ensuring everything ran smoothly. He loved to run around the farm with his brothers Duke and Cisco. Over his eleven years, Tyson had many dog, cat and human friends, and he will be deeply missed by all of them. His favorite treat was bacon, and his favorite pastime was crunching on a plastic water bottle, making delightful noises.

Rest In Peace Tyson Ray Stuart
